

7 October 1968

On 3 October 1968, a meeting of the CBW, Mid-Atlantic Committee on Fort Detrick, was held at the home of [REDACTED]. Discussion was held regarding a public meeting at Frederick, Maryland, with no definite date decided upon as yet; however, the 19th of November is the preferred date if arrangements can be made. Leymore HERSCH and A. Theodor ROSEBURY have agreed to speak at this meeting. The latter is from Chicago and formerly worked at Fort Detrick as a scientist. Following the proposed meeting at Fort Detrick, the group would also like to hold meetings at the University of Maryland and at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, Maryland. The Committee is in desperate need of funds.

The next meeting will be held at [REDACTED], on Monday, 14 October 1968 at 1830 hrs.

Eleven people attended this meeting and they are listed as follows:
